A report on Kite Flying (13 August, 2019)

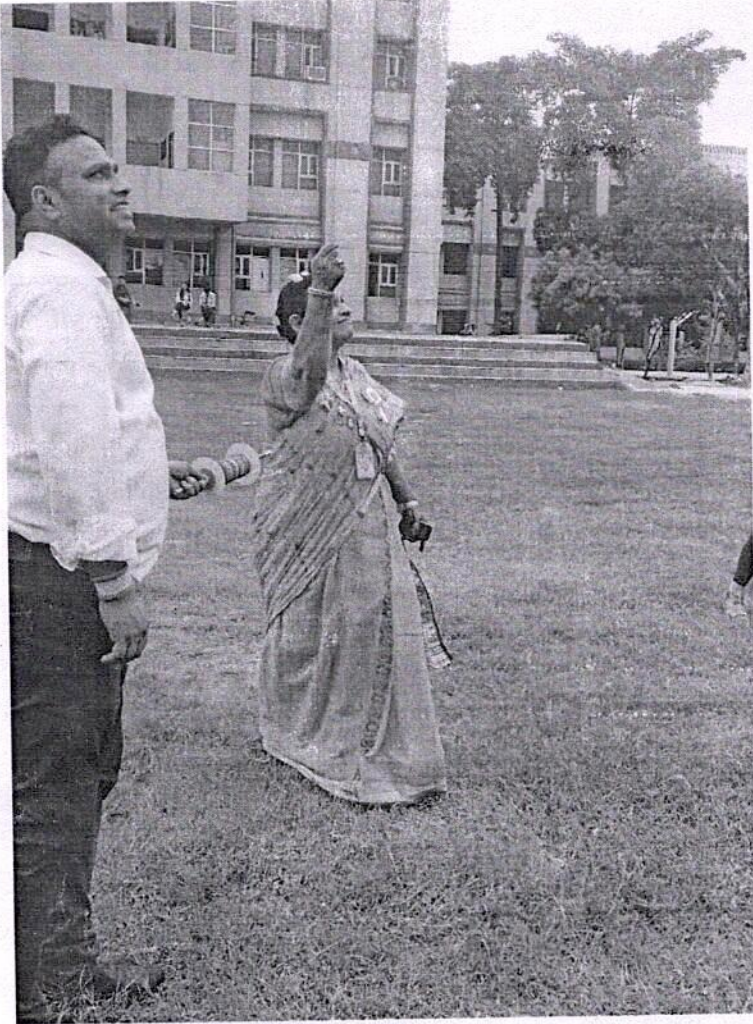

Kite-flying is an interesting tradition followed on the occasion of Independence Day in India.

On 13 August, faculty members along with Director sir and members from the admin department participated in the kite flying competition in the ground area. They bought their kites along with all other necessities (e.g. thread) by themselves. Female faculties also participated in the event. Those members who did not know the kite flying, enjoyed by cheering others.

The poster features the GNIOT logo and the text 'GNIOT GROUP OF INSTITUTIONS' and 'GREATER NOIDA INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY IS ORGANIZING'. It includes an illustration of a man and a woman flying kites. A calendar icon indicates the event is on 'Tuesday, 13 August 2019 | 11:00 AM onwards'. Contact information for Greater Noida, Delhi/NCR is provided, including a toll-free number and website. Social media icons for Facebook, YouTube, LinkedIn, and Instagram are also present.

Outcome of the event

- The faculty member get connected to the Indian traditional sport, i.e., kite flying.
- A sense of harmony and respect is developed as all of the faculty members come together.
- Since director sir is also a one of the participants, a sense of equality is also developed.
- The spirit of celebration of Independence day is invoked among all irrespective of religion and caste.

A report on Navrang (29 Oct, 2018)

Navrang marks the promotion of cultural, regional and linguistic. It is an initiative of our institution to provide the platform to faculty members to show the diverse culture of our country.

In this event, faculty members give tribute to the diversity of the nation in the form of dancing, acting and singing by showing performance on state-based themes, e.g., dandia form from Gujrat, Laavni from Maharashtra, bhangra from Punjab and classical dance (kathak). Faculties also present a small skit as a motivational medium.

A report on Mehfil (20 March, 2019)

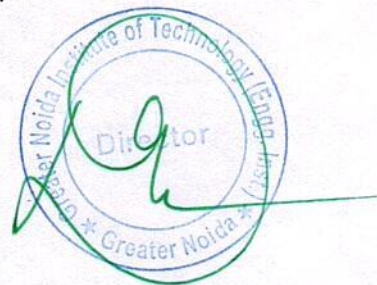

This event is organized during the holi season for faculty members exclusively to invoke the spirit of evil removing and sharing happiness with others. In the event, various stalls were arranged from the college authorities where faculties could enjoy the various cuisines without any cost. A DJ was also arranged to play songs and energized the members to dance. Faculty members were also given chemical free gulal.

Outcome of the event

- It generated the feeling of togetherness.
- With the spirit of holi, the faculty members pledged to bury all the differences.
- Since director sir is also a one of the participants, a sense of equality is also developed.
- Since this festival is played with water as well, it made everyone realised that winter is about to over and spring season is about to come.
