A report on Kite Flying (13 August, 2019)

Kite-flying is an interesting tradition followed on the occasion of Independence Day in India.

On 11 August, faculty members along with Director sir and members from the admin department participated in the kite flying competition in the ground area. They bought their kites along with all other necessities (e.g. thread) by themselves. Female faculties also participated in the event. Those members who did not know the kite flying, enjoyed by cheering others.

Outcome of the event

- The faculty member get connected to the Indian traditional sport, i.e., kite flying.
- A sense of harmony and respect is developed as all of the faculty members come together.
- Since director sir is also a one of the participants, a sense of equality is also developed.
- The spirit of celebration of Independence day is invoked among all irrespective of religion and caste.

A report on Navrang (23 Oct, 2019)

Navrang marks the promotion of cultural, regional and linguistic. _____

In this event, faculty members give tribute to the diversity of the nation in the form of dancing, acting and singing by showing performance on state-based themes, e.g., dandia form from Gujrat, Laavni from Maharashtra, bhangra from Punjab and classical dance (kathak). Faculties also present a small skit as a motivational medium.

Outcome of the event

- Faculties get aware about the different culture and tradition of states.
- A sense of harmony and respect is developed as all of the faculty members come together.
- Since director sir is also a one of the participants, a sense of equality is also developed.
- The spirit of celebration of Diwali is invoked among all irrespective of religion.
